CONDITIONS OF APPLICATION

1. Penryn College is a Christian School linked to the Methodist Church. Scholars of all established religions are however welcomed at the College, though they attend all religious services and lessons.
2. I agree that the College may check and confirm any information on the application form and may make any enquiries deemed necessary, and in particular to check my credit worthiness with the last school the scholar attended.
3. I understand that this is only an application for admission pending the results of the scholar assessment and availability of space both in the grade and/or boarding facility.
